Read your child's favorite book as many times as they want.	Write your child's name for them to trace over in crayon.	Play "I Spy" with the letter "M."	Sing the alphabet song & then sing it again really sloooooow.	Guess what a book is about by looking at the pictures.	Read a book about moms for Mother's Day.	Draw the sun. Make a circle and draw rays coming from it.
9 Playing	10 Singing	11 Talking	12 Reading	13 Writing	14 Playing	15
Make animals out of playdough or moon-sand.	Sing "Here We Go Round the Mulberry Bush" with your child.	Say all the words you can think of that rhyme with cat.	Read books with lots of rhymes & make up some silly ones of your own!	Draw a picture for a friend.	Act out your favorite story for an audience of stuffed animals.	 Read towards your 1000 Books Before Kindergarten goal!
16 Singing	17 Talking	18 Reading	19 Writing	20 Playing	21 Singing	22 Talking
Sing "I'm a Little Teapot" and do the actions with it, too. :)	Talk to your child during activities like cooking or laundry.	Read a nonfiction book about bugs or butterflies.	Draw or color some plants and flowers.	Play a board game with your child.	Sing a song book (author Jane Cabrera has a lot of them!).	Ask each family member about the best parts of their day.
23 Reading	24 Writing	25 Playing	26 Singing	27 Talking	28 Reading	29
Read a counting book such as "Stack the Cats."	Look for letters in your name on signs you see around town.	Pretend to plant a garden—don't forget to water it!	Find new music at the library—feel free to ask for suggestions! :)	Tell stories with family photos.	Read a book about summer to kick off Summer Reading!	 Visit us at myLibrary.org
30 Writing	31 Playing
Practice drawing different shapes.	Pretend to be a duck, bee, dog, etc. What sounds do they make?
